Oil News

County Wells Complete

By Dick Tatum

Four successful completions and 11 new locations have been announced for Medina County.

Also reported last week were three dusters in the Chicon Lake field.

Bab Oil Co. announced completion of four wells on the J. N. Wilson land 8 miles south of Hondo.

Well No. 1-C is producing 15.1 bbls. daily of gravity 23 oil from the Navarro at 953-feet. Well No. 2-C is getting 12.6 bbls. daily at 953-feet; Well No. 3-C is getting 13.4 bbls. from 925-feet and Well No. 4-C is producing 16 bbls. daily from 890-feet.

The three dry holes were drilled by G & B Drilling Co. on the A. A. Blatz and J. T. Bulloch land three miles from Natalia and on the Albert B. Piekert land 4 miles S. E. LaCoste.

New Locations

Eight new locations in the Taylor Ina field have been reported by L. M. Lockhart of San Antonio. All of the 1,000-foot testers are stacked on the W. B. Melton land 8 miles S. E. Hondo. Immediate development is not expected.

On Raymond Bendele's land, a 1,500-foot wildcat has been stacked by Lundells Inc. and W. H. Doran Jr. of Alice. This is located 10 miles S. E. Hondo.

In the Chicon Lake field, J. J. Pichinson will drill a 1,500-foot tester on the Victor C. Meier land 3 miles north Natalia.

In the same field, Louise G. Williams has located a 1,000-foot tester on W. L. Pittman's land 5 miles S. W. LaCoste.

Of Amendment Two

Court Explanation

Medina County's Commissioners Court, headed by County Judge Arthur Rothe, has written an explanation to Amendment No. 2, to be voted on in the general election in November.

The explanation is as follows: The Commissioners Courts of the Counties in Texas are presently authorized by Constitutional provision to levy taxes as follows:

On each $100 tax valuation in any one year, not to exceed 25 cents for the General Fund, 25 cents for Permanent Improvement Fund, 15 cents for Jury Fund and 15 cents for Road and Bridge Fund.

Should Amendment No. 2 carry by majority vote in the State at the general election in November, the Commissioners Courts would still be limited in their levy to the present total rate of 80 cents on the $100 tax valuation, for the four funds above set out, but would be authorized to set a

Collections Total $240 Last Week

Judge George Kimmey, Justice of the Peace, took in $240 last week, despite an illness which kept him out of his office from Wednesday until Monday.

Judge Kimmey suffered a slight stroke but was feeling much better Monday.

Fines included one overgross weight, two passing without sufficient clearance, two speeding and one for killing a buck out of season.

J. D. Jones was fined $25 for overgross weight, A. L. Benner and Stanley S. Medley paid fines for speeding, $15 and $50 respectively, Stanley S. Medley and Earl R. Pillman Jr. each paid $50 for passing without sufficient clearance and Eitel Kuehne paid $50 for killing a buck out of season.

stream, Earl Gwin, Bob Nations and George Reinburg, coach of the Pooped Fliers. The game, a benefit for the Arthur Gallucci Fund, will be played Monday night on Barry Field. Game time is 8 p. m.

For Championship Game

Pooped Fliers Set

Coach George Reinburg of the Hondo Air Base Pooped Fliers, says he has one of the "youngest teams I have ever coached."

Leading his "champions" against the Hondo Lions Club Monday night on Barry Field, Reinburg says his lineup will boast the best set of pooped fliers ever seen.

Meanwhile, coaches O. A. Fly and Edgar Stiegler of the Laggin' Lions, say their team is in their top physical condition of the season. They haven't won a game this year, and hold a season record of 0-25, while the Pooped Fliers have a season record of 0 wins and 24 losses. Game time is 8 p. m.

The serious part of the game — a six-man touch affair — is the fact that it is a benefit for Arthur L. Gallucci, Hondo Junior High School teacher, who was stricken with polio last summer. He has been unable to return to his job this year. Admission to the game will be by donation to the Arthur Gallucci Fund only. There will be no standing charge — whatever each individual can afford to give for two hours of laughter and football.

Half-time activities at the game will be the best ever displayed in this area. Hondo's prize winning band will give a performance and the Hondo Air Base Drum and Bugle Corps and Drill Team will make a personal appearance.

Cheerleaders have been chosen and you'll just have to be there to see that!

The two teams have been in training for the past two weeks, preparing for their final game of the season, and probably for their career. Coach Reinburg says his team will have lots of weight on the line and all of his backs are fleet-footed. "We are sure to take the championship," he said.

Coach Fly said his team has a lot of weight — everywhere.

Officials will be Tom Moseley, Blanton Taylor, Jimmy Amberson and Franklin Bless. Time keeper will be Cliff Sadder and Fritz Leinweber will operate the scoreboard. Bob Beard and Dr. J. H. Meyer will operate the P.A. system. The Business and Professional Women's Club will handle the concession stands.

The Lion roster includes such has been as Bob Nations, John Jennings, Joe Mims, Harry Haltman, Riggs Shepherd, Jean Ulbrich, James Tschirhart, Wayne Seigler, Ralph Cole, John McAnelly, Jack Winkler, R. V. Glenn, Andy Patterson, George Dawson, Milton Armin, J. F. Delony, O. J. Bomba, Frank Vance, Harold Goodenough, Harry Filleman and other weapons.

Three Grades Will Attend New School

Hondo School Superintendent J. G. Barry reported Tuesday that the school board has come to a decision as to which students will occupy the new elementary school building.

All students of grades one, two and three are to move into the new structure. Barry says the six sections of grade one, the five sections of grade two and the four sections of grade three will just about fill up the building.

The construction is way ahead of schedule according to Barry, and it is believed the big move may be made during the Christmas holiday vacation.

As previously announced, the west Ward School and the Northside Elementary School will be vacated just as soon as the new building is completed.

Castroville Garden Club Hosts Wives

The Castroville Garden Club was hostess to wives of the members of the Border Bar Association Saturday, Oct. 27, on a tour of Castroville.

Mrs. Frank Vance, Hondo Bar Association member, made arrangements.

Guests, who were from Hondo, San Antonio, Uvalde, Carrizo Springs, Eagle Pass, Del Rio and Devine, visited St. Louis Church, Moye Military School, the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard FitzSimond and Melanie Naegelin, Landmark Inn and the Vance house, where they were served coffee and cake.

Irrigation Farmers Will Get Inside Look

Bonner Carl, chairman of the South Texas Electric Pump Irrigation Exposition, to be held in Pearsall Nov. 9, has announced that a capacity crowd of 1,500 farmers is expected.

The program is being designed to acquaint the irrigation farmer in South Texas with the latest equipment, application methods, production, marketing and other water systems.

The exposition will be held on the Frio Livestock Sales grounds, located one mile south of Pearsall on Highway 81. It is being sponsored by the Medina Electric Cooperative at Hondo, and the Rio Grande Electrical Cooperative, Brackettville, in cooperation with state and federal agricultural agencies.

Among topics of discussion will be decline in levels of ground water and methods of reaching them. This topic will be covered by the State Board of Water Engineers, and representatives of the Soil Conservation Service, and U. S. Geological Survey Engineers will discuss upstream flood control. Other topics on the program include test drilling and their construction, selection of pumps, motors, methods of financing irrigation, planning the irrigation system and marketing.

From all indications, every type equipment used in the irrigation field will be on display at the Frio Livestock field grounds. More than 25 companies are expected to present their irrigation equipment and give demonstrations of all types of materials and supplies which are used in irrigated farming.

Dr. John Schunk, irrigation specialist from the state of Colorado, and Dr. Van D. Wood of Denver, Colo., will lecture and answer all questions on irrigation. Jack Barton, soil conservation expert from Texas A&M College, will deal with fertilizers and application.

Carl said the program will start at 8 a.m. Nov. 9.

"We want to show the farmer how to develop the most efficient irrigation system and where to get help. We want to cover the relationship of teamwork between producer, jobber, processor and consumer. Too, we feel like the different types of domestic and farm water systems and their proper application will be an important part of the program," Carl said.

A barbecue dinner is being planned, free to those attending. Several persons from neighboring states have sent word to Carl that they will attend, as similar days will be planned in each state.

Attendance prizes will be awarded and will be furnished by dealers in this area. Individuals have to be present to win. A question and answer period, beginning at 7:30 p.m., will end the exposition.

Carl says "any farmer practicing irrigation can't afford to miss the display."

Petition Asks Court Action At LaCoste

The Medina County Commissioners Court studied a petition filed with them from citizens in LaCoste during their regular meeting last week.

The petition, which asks that portion of streets in the city of LaCoste be closed to the public, will be heard Nov. 12 by the Court.

The streets involved are Bexar St., from the NW corner of block seven, to the SW corner of block nine, Emil Zinsmeyer Addition, and Carle Ave., from the NW corner of lot 12, block 8, to the NW corner of lot one, block nine, Emil Zinsmeyer Addition. The petition was signed by 24 persons.

In other business, the Court approved Dan O'Connell for Civil Defense coordinator for Medina County and set a salary for the balance of the year.

V. H. Neuman, Ervin Leinweber, Elgin Stiegler and James Amberson all made requests for use of road machinery. The Court approved the requests.

Criminal Docket Relatively Small

Two driving while intoxicated cases were tried last week on the county Criminal Docket.

Mrs. C. S. Johnson and Simon Cantu were both convicted of DWI and were fined $100 and $200 respectively.

A DWI offense also carries a three-day jail term and six-months suspension of drivers license.

HONDO'S WISE OLD

Farm Bureau Asks For Same Rates

WACO — The Texas Farm Bureau today asked Secretary of Agriculture Benson to permit farmers and ranchers to buy surplus feed grains from the Commodity Credit Corporation at the same rates that now apply only to dealers.

In a telegram to Benson, TFB President J. Walter Hammond also requested that use of drouth relief certificates be permitted as part payment for grain in the same manner now used in the drouth roughage program. He also requested that eligible farmers be permitted to use the certificates to buy feed grains from any source.

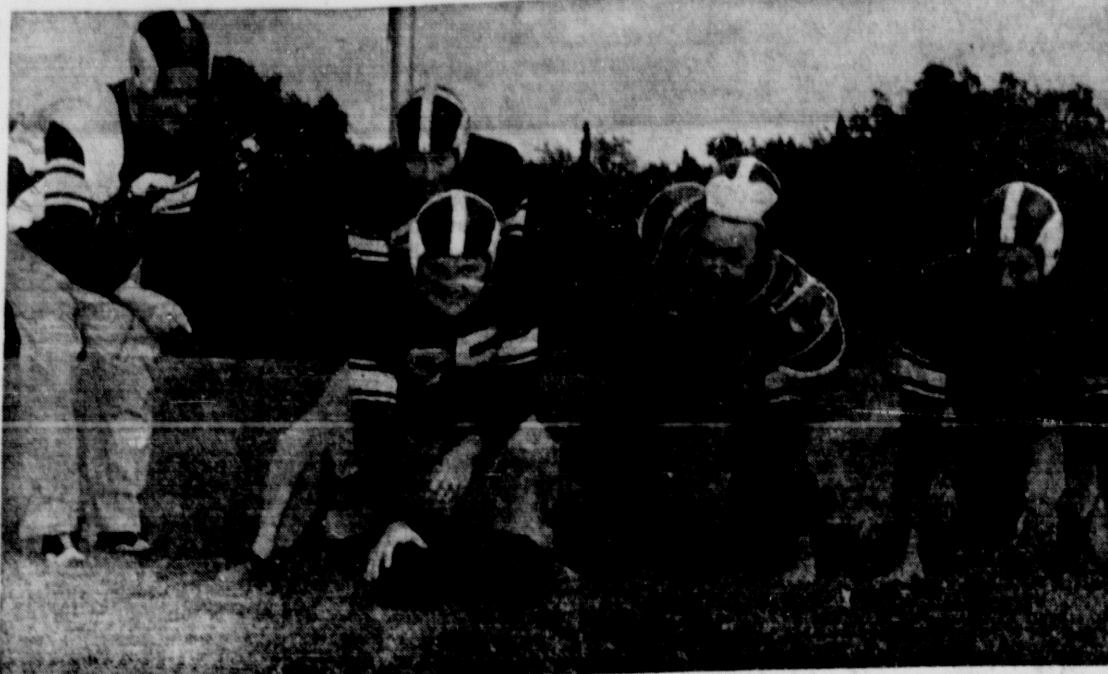

"There is considerable dissatisfaction and disappointment among the farmers and ranchers regarding the administrative procedures for distributing drouth relief feed grains", Hammond told the Secretary of Agriculture. At present, eligible livestock producers must buy feed grain from dealers. Farmers complain that this makes the price higher, thus nullifying some of the beneficial effects of the federal drouth relief program.

John Palmer Explains Social Security Laws

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of stories on the 1956 Amendments to the Social Security Act, prepared for this paper by John D. Palmer, Manager of the San Antonio district office. Readers may want to clip these articles and thus have a complete file on what the new law does and does not provide.)

Cash disability payments to totally disabled persons between 50 and 65 who have sufficient social security work credits will become payable in July 1957.

In order to qualify, an individual must meet these requirements: (1) be so severely disabled that he is unable to do any substantial gainful work; (2) have been disabled for at least six months, with the disability expected to continue indefinitely; (3) be 50 years of age or older; (4) have credit for at least five years of work under social security in the ten years just before the disability began, with at least 1 1/2 years of that work in three years just before disability began; and (5) file application and furnish adequate medical proof of disability.

Social security offices cannot accept applications for disability insurance before October, 1956. Persons who previously had a disability freeze of their social security status approved will be contacted by their social security office before July if they will be 50 then. Disabled persons who have not previously applied to have their benefits status frozen can do so now, if they wish. The determination of disability made in connection with a disability freeze application will ordinarily be used for a claim for disability insurance. Disabled persons not yet 50 years old should inquire about the disability freeze provision.

The amount of disability payments will be the same as the old-age insurance benefit would be if the individual were 65 at the time. There are no payments to dependents, but in case of death, regular survivors benefits are payable. If the person is still disabled when he becomes 65, his benefit is converted to old-age insurance, and payments to dependents are then possible.

The next article will explain payments to totally disabled children who are over 18 years of age.

Which Party For Texas?

The Great Autumn Metamorphosis has taken place in Texas. Republican Party butterflies have come out of their cocoons, where they've stayed for the past four years, and are again spreading their words of sunshine about the "need" and the "privilege" of voting for the GOP on November 6.

The Republicans contribute little to government in Texas. Despite all that talk in 1952 about building a strong, responsible Republican Party in this state, the truth is that the GOP is still content to let the Democrats shoulder all the duties of local self-government. About the only time you hear from Jack Porter and his Republican clan is in a Presidential election year when Texas' 24 electoral votes become a choice political plum. Incidentally, Mr. Porter recently admitted "dunning" some postmasters appointed during the past few years for contributions which he fixed at 5 per cent of a postmaster's salary.

It is true that the so-called "Old Guard" no longer operates the GOP machinery in Texas. But it is also true that the "New Guard" is playing the same old-fashioned Republican game of patronage and exclusion, hotel room decisions and political bossism.

Compare this with the Democratic Party — the party of local self-government in Texas. Year in and year out, the Democrats do the work — looking after the problems of the state and our people. How does that stack up against the neglect and indifference of the GOP?

Nationally, Texas' prestige is in the Democratic Party. Texans lead their party in both houses of Congress. Democrats man all of the Congressional stations allotted Texas, with the exception of one Republican who may go into involuntary retirement come January.

By contrast, Republican policies have always been geared to suit the business and political interests of the North and East. The Republicans have demonstrated time and again that they don't care a fig about Texas and the South — except when they're in quest of electoral votes every four years. And the Grand Old Party in Texas wants to remain a closed shop where a few king-makers can wield political power from the penthouses of Houston and Dallas.

In other words, the Democrats of Texas bake the bread but the Republicans think they're entitled to sop the gravy.

By voting Democratic on November 6, you and I will be voting for the party of the people of Texas — the party that works for Texas.

Water Problem Could Find Cure In Proposed District

Medina County citizens are faced with a problem — that of water.

The Edwards Underground Water Conservation Committee of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce, which is headed by Paul W. Jahn, New Braunfels, thinks it has a means to the end of the problem.

Let's take a look at the proposed Edwards Underground Water District.

The district would embrace about an 8,000 square mile area in southwestern Texas. This area is traversed by the Balcones Fault Line, which can be generally described as the line of demarcation between the rolling coastal plains in the southern part of the proposed district and the hill country in the northern part of the proposed district.

The STCC says the principal purpose of the Edwards Underground Water District is to assist nature to utilize more efficiently the runoff available for recharge but which, without such assistance, will flow down the various rivers that traverse the proposed district to areas beyond the confines of the district.

It has been estimated that a one foot drop in water table within the reservoir represents a withdrawal of 55,000 acre feet.

The STCC says by augmenting recharge of water to the Edwards Underground Reservoir, the area will be in a position to invite more population and more industry. The area has about all the population it can support at the present time.

The fulfillment of the aims of the proposed Edwards Underground Water District is, as a co-operative enterprise, mutually beneficial to all people of the district. No city or town can prosper without a prosperous trade area. No area can prosper and grow without a sufficient and adequate water supply. The South Texas Chamber says the water district will insure the continuation of an adequate water supply for the people of the district and permit a reasonable growth of the area.

Districts are authorized to incur all indebtedness necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was created. This may be achieved by issuing bonds as prescribed by law. The district may levy and collect taxes of not more than 50 cents on the $100 assessed valuation on property in the district subject to taxation for state and county purposes. Certain exemptions from taxes and bonded debt are provided for owners of grazing land.

The law provides that no owners of lands may be deprived of his leases and assigns of any such ownership or rights, subject however to rules and regulations which may be promulgated pursuant to Section 3c of Article 7880, which states, "Districts are authorized to develop comprehensive plans for the most efficient use of the underground water of the underground water reservoir or subdivision thereof and for the control and prevention of waste of such underground water . . . ; to carry out research projects, develop information and determine limitations, if any, which should be made on the withdrawal of underground water from the underground reservoir or subdivision thereof; to collect and preserve information regarding the use of such underground water and the practicability of recharge of the underground water or subdivision thereof. . . ."

It is specifically provided that nothing in Section 3c shall be construed to apply to wells drilled under permits granted by the State Railroad Commission; authorize or permit the requiring of a permit for the drilling or producing of a well drilled, completed and equipped so that it will not produce in excess of 100,000 gallons of underground water per day; and restrict the production of any well producing underground water to an amount less than 100,000 gallons per day.

The district would be governed by five directors, elected by qualified resident property taxpaying voters, selected according to a "precinct method". The STCC says the water district is essential because it is the logical method of preserving the present and future water supply.

Gillespie County will vote Nov. 24, on the proposed Gillespie Water Control and Improvement District No. 1.

DEPOSIT FOR FREEDOM...

There's no way to buy freedom when we want it. Only through assuming our responsibilities as individuals can we develop—or even maintain—the freedoms we have.

One of those responsibilities is to vote for those individuals and ideas in which we believe. We shall be called upon to assume again that responsibility in a few days.

We all have our own slate of candidates and ideas. Some of our neighbors have the same ones, others differ. But the important thing is not that we agree or disagree, but that we all express our views at the ballot box.

We believe that this is essential for democracy to thrive. We have based the organization of our rural electric system on that belief. The votes of our members set the policies of this locally-owned, locally-controlled rural electric system.

To that one principle we attribute our success as a tax-paying local business enterprise. To that same principle we attribute the success of our nation.

Failure of our members to assume their responsibilities would weaken our business, just as surely as failure of all of us in our responsibilities as citizens would weaken our democratic nation.

TAKES A BRIEF LOOK AT CURRENT POLITICS — A NEW PARTY IN THE FORMING

VOTERS HAVE THREE PARTIES TO CHOOSE FROM

Chances are that few of the voters who go to the polls to cast their vote on November 6th will know, until they are handed their ballot, that there are three thereon from which they may choose whom they prefer.

We would have been in such a category had not we had the fortune to see a "sample" of the ballot to be used on that occasion.

Of course the Democratic and the Republican party names appear, as usual and in the order named here.

But the third one is a party name never, to our knowledge, used before.

It is labeled "Constitution Party", and its candidates are T. Coleman Andrews and Thomas H. Werdel, for President and Vice President respectively in the order named.

—FD—

As a brief exposition of what the party stands for, we quote here with a statement from Mr. Andrews, the party's spokesman and the head of its ticket.

Says Mr. Andrews: —

Our country is at the crossroads and something definite and vigorous must be done soon to return to the Constitution and the two-party system, or we shall soon be beyond the point of no return in our drift toward socialistic dictatorship. The cause of freedom was not advanced at either Chicago or San Francisco as evidenced by the platforms of both those parties.

There is no doubt in my mind that millions of people in this country are now ready to do something about the sad fact that there is not any longer any difference between the two political parties and about the extent to which we have drifted and been decided away from the Constitution.

Our country was founded upon faith in God, upon recognition of the dignity of the individual and of the importance of preserving this essential characteristic of human beings, and upon equal faith in the sure rewards of self-reliance, hard work and personal integrity.

I believe that the vast majority of the people of this country still believe in these tenets and that there is a hard core of millions of people left who are ready and willing to fight for return to acceptance of these principles as the articles of our political faith and action.

I believe this because I have seen in the thousands of letters and other communications that have come to me recently the awakening of an aggressive awareness of the gruesome significance of the extent to which the cancerous multiplication of the powers of the Federal Government has invaded the constitutional framework and tissue of states' rights and personal freedom.

I believe it because I have seen in these communications evidence of the existence of politically decisive numbers of people who are beginning to see what a brazen fraud the whole left-wing movement has been and how close to political enslavement they have been lured by it.

I believe it because I also have seen in my mail the emergence of realization that we have been put on the sucker end of a cold-shoulder political hoax in which our own hard-earned income has been used to buy our support of the most colossal something-for-nothing deception the world has ever seen.

Inordinate waste and extravagance at home . . . war-breeding internationalism . . . hate-breeding support of unworthy foreign governments and people, with burdensome domestic problems unheeded or unsolved . . . and indifference to pleas that something be done about the sacrificial and even impoverishing taxes that these and other policies and practices engendered. All these things have started a search for leadership whose FIRST concern would be for OUR government and OUR people.

I shall do everything in my power to expose the evils of the income tax and bring about just and equitable tax reform. I do not intend to let this evil make the Constitution just an attestation of a noble experiment that failed, if there is any power withal in me that can be honorably used to help prevent that catastrophe from befalling us.

stay ahead of its commitments would depend upon many variable factors. For example, an economic slowdown might force a reduction in the salaries and the number of members of the retirement system and thus automatically reduce the amount of the State contribution.

It apparently would be possible for the total of these yearly contributions by the State to carry the cost of retirement and other benefits for some time before it became apparent that the State Contribution Fund was approaching exhaustion. If that happened, however, either the law would have to be changed to reduce any benefits approved thereafter or the Constitution would have to be amended again to allow a substantial increase in State costs.

INCREASING THE TOTAL OF BONDS WHICH THE STATE CAN ISSUE FOR THE VETERANS LAND PROGRAM BY $100,000,000, AND CHANGING THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE VETERANS' LAND BOARD.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 2, if adopted, would amend Section 49-b, Article III, of the Constitution of Texas to increase the amount of bonds which may be issued under the Veterans' Land Program, and change the composition of the Veterans' Land Board. It would become effective on and after January 1, 1957.

The Veterans' Land Program was first adopted in 1946 through a constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of $25,000,000 in State bonds for purchase of land which might be sold to veterans of World War II. In 1951 this constitutional provision was amended to increase the amount of bonds which could be issued to $100,000,000, and to make assistance under this program available also to Texas veterans who had served in the armed forces of the United States subsequent to 1945. All of these bonds have been issued, the last $10,000,000 being sold in the fiscal year 1955. Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 would make the maximum amount of bonds which could be issued $200,000,000, thus providing for the issuance of an amount which has already been sold. In addition, it would allow the portion of the Veterans' Land Fund not immediately committed for the purchase of land to be invested in short term United States Bonds or obligations and the interest accruing thereon would become a part of the Veterans' Land Fund.

In the fiscal year 1955 the amount spent on land purchased for resale was $12,487,660. The Veterans' Land Fund had a cash balance of $7,124,548 on August 31, 1955 and held U. S. Government bonds in the amount of $4,266,600.

At the present time the Veterans' Land Board is composed of the Governor, the Attorney General and the Commissioner of the General Land Office. Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 would change the personnel of this board to be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two citizens of the State who would be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. One of the appointed members would be required to be well versed in veterans' affairs and the other appointed member well versed in finances. The Governor would initially appoint one of the members for a two year term and the other for a four year term and thereafter he would biennially appoint one such member for a term of four years. The two appointed members would be paid such compensation as might be fixed by the Legislature, and would be required to make bond in an amount prescribed by the Legislature.

The proposed amendment expressly states that the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of the Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as may be provided by law.

Both the money from the sale of bonds and from repayment of State assistance, except so much as may be necessary to pay the principal of and interest on purchase of land for further help to veterans. After December 1, 1959, all moneys received by the Veterans' Land Board from the sale of lands and interest on deferred payments, or so much as may be necessary, must be set aside for the retirement of bonds heretofore issued and to pay the interest on such bonds. Any of such moneys not needed for this purpose shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund at a time not later than the maturity date of the maturing bonds.

The additional bonds which could be issued under this proposed amendment would provide a new program to run until December 1, 1965. Moneys received from the sale of lands and interest on deferred payments on land purchased with the proceeds of such additional bonds would be credited to the Veterans' Land for use in purchasing additional land to be sold to Texas veterans. As much of such moneys as might be necessary to pay interest on these bonds would be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1965 all moneys received by the Veterans' Land Board from sale of lands and interest on payments, or so much as might be necessary, would be set aside for the retirement of the additional bonds and to pay interest on them. Any of such moneys not so needed would be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund at a time not later than the maturity date of the last maturing bonds under the additional program provided by this amendment.

Those who favor doubling the amount of bonds which may be issued by the State of Texas to carry on its program of assisting veterans to purchase land say that the program has benefited many veterans, that repayment by veterans with interest will more than take care of the State's costs in connection with the bond issues and that there may eventually be a windfall to the State's General Revenue Fund. Those who think it unwise to increase the amount of bonds available argue that the scandals which have been exposed in the last two years prove this type of program is inevitably an invitation to graft and corruption which cannot be, as a practical matter, completely controlled; that the wording of the proposed amendment confirms, as Chairman of the Board, an increase in the authority of the Commissioner of the Land Office, the very position which has been most deeply involved in the scandals. They argue further that this program touches only a relatively few of the veterans while a preponderantly larger number are securing home or farm lands under regular loan procedures from federal or private sources.

CHANGING THE OATH OF OFFICE TO BE TAKEN BY APPOINTIVE STATE OFFICERS.

H. J. R. No. 46

Section 1 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas the oath of affirmation which members of the Legislature and all officers of the State must take before they enter upon the duties of their offices. House Joint Resolution No. 46 proposes to amend this section so as to make a difference between the oath taken by elected officers and those of officers who are appointed. Under the proposed amendment members of the Legislature and other elected officers of the State of Texas would take the same oath now provided in our Constitution.

They swear or affirm that they will faithfully execute the duties of their offices, protect and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States and this State, and that they have not directly or indirectly paid, offered, promised to pay, contributed or promised to contribute, any money or valuable thing, or promised any public office or employment, as a reward for the giving or withholding of votes in the election at which they were elected.

The proposed new oath for the Secretary of State and all other appointed officers reads exactly the same as the present oath except that they would swear that they have not done any of the above mentioned things in order to secure appointment of the confirmation thereof.

In brief words, elected officials would swear they have not made or offered bribes in order to be elected, appointed officials would swear they have not done so in order to be appointed. This is the only change made by this proposed amendment.

PROVIDING CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH JURY TRIAL MAY BE WAIVED WHEN A PERSON IS ALLEGED TO BE OF UNSOUND MIND.

H. J. R. No. 11

Article I of the Constitution of Texas is the Bill of Rights. Section 15 of Article I, after stating that the right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate, permits the Legislature to provide for temporary commitment for a period of not to exceed ninety days, by order of the County Court without necessity of a trial by jury, of mentally ill persons not charged with a criminal offense. The commitment is for observation and treatment.

House Joint Resolution No. 11 would add a new Section 15-a, specifically providing that no person shall be committed as a person of unsound mind except on competent medical or psychiatric testimony. In addition, it would allow the Legislature to enact laws necessary to provide for the trial and adjudication of insanity, and for the commitment of persons of unsound mind, and also for methods of appeal from judgment rendered in such cases.

House Joint Resolution No. 11 resembles in many ways a proposed constitutional amendment which was defeated in 1949 by a vote of 158,672 to 142,744, in that it would allow waiver of trial by jury in cases where the person, under inquiry has not been charged with Commission of a criminal offense. However, it differs from the former proposal in two important aspects. One is the requirement that there must be competent medical or psychiatric testimony before a person of unsound mind could be committed. The other important provision is that where there is a waiver of jury trial, concurred in by the person under inquiry or by his next of kin, an attorney at law must be appointed by the judge of either the County or Probate Court of the county where the trial is being held. This would seem to require appointment of an attorney at law in all such cases and the signature of such attorney on any waiver of a jury trial and be wholly without benefit of counsel in so doing.

Briefly stated, this amendment would require competent medical or psychiatric testimony before a person of unsound mind may be committed, and it would allow waiver of trial by jury under the protection of an attorney at law appointed by the court where no criminal offense is charged. It could improve the administration of State laws relating to the insane, save the State the expense of jury trials, and relieve the person under inquiry and his family from embarrassment and humiliation. Payment for the attorney at law would be a new State expense, and there are some counties where competent medical testimony would be a substantial new cost because no such expert resides in the county or nearby.

It is the belief of many hospital and medical authorities, and of others who have made special studies of our state mental and health programs, that the proposed amendment would also substantially reduce the placement of older people in State mental institutions who are not mentally ill but are the victims of senility or other chronic illnesses of their advanced age. It is the thinking of these authorities that such people are not properly cared for under the present system and that their presence in mental hospitals interferes with the proper treatment by the hospital staff of those who have genuine mental illness.

by David Lawrence

When the American people go to the polls in a few weeks, they will choose the man who — beginning on January 20th next — is to be Commander-in-Chief of all the armed forces of the United States.

This means command of the largest Navy and the largest Air Force in the world today and of the largest Army the United States has ever maintained except in time of actual war.

This means that the power of decision — where and when to deploy these forces, how to maintain them in the best possible positions so as to deter a war from breaking out or to fight a war if it does break out — is in the hands of the President of the United States who is elected next month.

This means also that the delicate questions of diplomacy and of military policy, which are so closely interwoven nowadays, must be determined by the man who, under the Constitution, not only commands the armed services but is charged with the responsibility for conducting all our relationships with foreign governments. A president may have many counselors and subordinates, but the power of decision is his, and his alone. The quality of his judgment and the expertness of his background can mean the difference between victory and defeat — survival and disaster — in a nuclear age.

What a fortunate thing for America that during the last three and a half years the Commander-in-Chief has been the same man who led the biggest military force in history to win the greatest military victory of all times for the United States and its allies!

Military men have often been pictured as eager for war. But President Eisenhower has shown himself to be even more eager for peace. He brushed aside cries of possible "appeasement" and forthrightly ventured to the Geneva Conference in 1955 to meet personally the leaders of the Communist regime. He had no illusions as to their insincerity, but he had been saying all along — that he would go anywhere in the world to advance the cause of peace.

The fact, moreover, that there has been a period of non-war doesn't mean that war has been removed as a possible contingency in our lives. The Congress — including the leaders of both parties — have not abated one bit a determination to maintain the armed forces necessary to deter a war. We are spending around 40 billion dollars a year on our armaments.

The president commands at this moment large American forces in Europe and the Far East.

These are times when one man's decision can mean the difference between war and peace.

Congress, for example, vests in one man alone — the President — the power to order the super-bomb to be dropped, or not to be dropped.

The United States, moreover, is today signatory to the North Atlantic Treaty because the Senate, in an action unprecedented in our history, ratified an agreement which provides that an attack in Europe and North America on any of the countries of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization — now numbering 15 — is an attack on this country.

For three and a half years as President, and prior to that for several years as military commander, Dwight D. Eisenhower has become familiar with every angle of the perplexing situations that exist in Europe, where the war can break out at any time. He has also had firsthand experience with the problems of Korea and the Far East. He obtained from Congress last year, by virtually unanimous vote, the authority to act at once in the Formosa Straits if there should be any attack on United States interests there. War is a continuous threat in and around Formosa.

When the American people vote next month, will they turn out the present Commander-in-Chief and select a novice to take his place?

Obviously one of the two presidential nominees does have the needed experience, and the other plainly does not. Shall other factors then — group grievances and the promises of materialistic gains for farmers or labor union politicians — be given more consideration by voters than they give to the military ability and judgment of a Commander-in-Chief who happens also to have an accumulated knowledge of every phase of world diplomacy?

Shall this leader, recognized as such by the free world, be turned out of office?

Of what avail are the material gains of the day for any group of voters if the lives of any of our sons are to be lost in a war that could be avoided?

Is this the time to change the Commander-in-Chief? Is this the time to take the risks of transition and error, of "a period of costly and dangerous trial and error," such as Mr. Truman prophesied would ensue in the event of the election of Mr. Stevenson?

Is this the time to change horses in midstream — to swap the nation's most experienced man in military affairs for an inexperienced Commander-in-Chief of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force?

FFA Sets Contest Saturday

The Hondo FFA Chapter will be host to the Revaldina FFA District Leadership Contest Saturday, Nov. 3, at Hondo High School. There are 13 FFA Chapters in the Revaldina FFA District who are expected to enter one or more teams in the six events.

The contest is divided into two divisions — Greenhand for first year vocational agriculture boys and Chapter Division for boys who have taken vocational agriculture more than one year. The Hondo Chapter plans to enter six teams Saturday.

There will be banners awarded the first three placing teams in each event. First and second placing teams in each event will qualify for area leadership contest to be held in San Marcos Nov. 10. At the area contest, only the first place teams qualify for state leadership contest, to be held in Huntsville in December.

One of the primary aims of future farmer work is to develop agricultural leadership. The state FFA Association strives to encourage boys to improve their leadership abilities by entering these contests each year.

Hondo FFA Boys were busy Wednesday and Thursday building booths for the annual PTA Halloween Carnival on the courthouse square. The clean-up detail Thursday was not as enjoyable as building booths Wednesday.

EXPLANATION

On the basis of this amendment, the Court would be obliged to levy only the amount actually needed in the operation of the amounts merited above.

The maximum amounts by the Constitution are not needed in a certain amount but a larger amount may be needed in another fund. Under present law, the only way amounts can be changed is by the Commission Court to a re-allocation election every year or less. Holding these elections, of course, costs the thousands of dollars, would bind the Counties for years unless changed by an election.

By voting for this amendment tax payers can save the money in two ways. First, making it possible for their Commissioners Court to operate more business-like basis, second, by eliminating the cost of expensive re-allocation elections.

Under no circumstances adoption of the amendment an increase in maximum county taxes, because it fixes the maximum county levy for the regular funds at 80 cents on $100 valuation, which is the as the present maximum.

The court asks the voters Medina County to read carefully and study the pertinent portions above given relative to Constitutional Amendment No. 2, on general election ballot and their true convictions.

Julianna Bendele and Ronnie Schweers

Bendele-Schweers Rites Observed In Hondo Church

Julianna Bernice Bendele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bendele, Hondo, became the bride of Ronald Glenn Schweers, son of Frank E. Schweers, Hondo, and Mrs. Evelyn Smith, Uvalde, Oct. 27, at St. John's Catholic Church. Rev. Harold Ehlinger officiated in the double ring rites. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon net and lace over satin. The bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and short sleeves. She wore gauntlets to match. Her bouffant skirt of net with a lace insert, was floor-length.

The imported bridal illusion veil was caught to a half-hat of lace embroidered with pearls. She carried white orchids and Stephanotis atop a white Prayer Book.

Miss Marian Ehlinger served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Crutcher and Kathy Hartman. Flower girl was Audrey Schweers.

Jerry Quinn was best man and W. J. Schweers and James Cagle served as groomsmen. Irvin J. Bendele and Firmin O. Bendele, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

A reception, immediately following the ceremonies, was held at St. John's Parish Hall. Decorations consisted of assorted colored roses, and the serving table was covered with a lace table cloth.

Mrs. James Cagle presided over the bride's book.

The bride's mother chose a medium blue acetate crepe dress with black accessories, while the groom's mother chose a navy blue taffeta with white lace.

The couple will return to the west coast where the groom is presently serving with the U. S. Navy, following a one week wedding trip.

Both are graduates of Hondo High School.

Private Citizens
May Now See
Air Force Action

Jack Webb, star and director of "Dragnet" and "Pete Kelly's Blues," plays himself in Warner Bros.' new short subject "24 Hour Alert," which will be seen Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 7-8, at the Hondo Drive In Theater.

The famous film, television and radio star, along with the officers and men of the United States Air Force, are seen in a revealing account of the activities of the peace-time defense force of the air. The very latest jet aircraft are reportedly displayed in existing mile-high maneuvers.

Here In Hondo

Myron Saathoff, son of M&M Chester Saathoff, Hondo, was named winner in a coloring contest in San Antonio last week. His prize was a brand new bicycle.

M&M Jake Schuele were in Houston this weekend for the Rice-Texas football game.

Joe Kilgore, Representative of our 15th Congressional District in Washington, was in Hondo Thursday visiting friends. He had just returned from Laredo, where he had been with Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Sen. John Kennedy on their speech making tour. He left Thursday night for his home in McAllen.

M&M Bill Berger were in Corpus Christi Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Berger's uncle, J. I. Holloway, who died Saturday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Kelley, Gloria and Bobby, were in Waco Saturday for the A&M-Baylor game.

M&M Sam Lanham spent the weekend in Waco, where they visited Mrs. Lanham's mother, Mrs. J. M. Nash, and their sons and daughters-in-law, M&M Sammy Lanham and M&M Mike Lanham. They also attended the Baylor-A&M game and despite the fact that Mrs. Nash lives only a few blocks from the stadium, it took them an hour to get from there back to her home — the traffic was so heavy.

Kollmans

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kollman entertained with a party Friday night in their home following the Hondo-Cottulla football game. That day was their 30th wedding anniversary.

A centerpiece of long-stemmed red roses was used on the dining table. Other floral arrangements were placed in the sunroom and living room. Cake and coffee were served.

That night, their daughter and her family, Capt. and Mrs. Robert B. Moore, Marcy and Sparky, of Denver, Colo. arrived for a ten-day visit.

HOW MUCH SHALL I SAY?

In a classified ad say as much as is necessary to completely describe what you are offering of goods or services, little more. Be brief, concise, complete. Tell all you would like to know if you were the prospect.

Facts are what count in a classified ad. Superlatives are to be avoided. Readers of classified pages are looking for something. If you have it and you copy adequately describes it, leaves no question in prospect's mind, you will get action... a sale. Terms are right.

A buyer looking for something in classified pages will read most of the ads to find it. The judicious use of display type, a little white space at top and bottom, the boxed ad — as in display ads on these pages — command attention, adding to the pulling power.

Say what is essential in your ad; use display space where competitive advertising dictates the need.

Game and Fish Commission Says Increased Revenue Is Needed

AUSTIN — The Game and Fish Commission decided today that, if Texas is to maintain its present wildlife restoration pace, increased revenue is urgently needed.

The Commissioners laid the ground work to petition the next Legislature to provide financial relief preferably through universal hunting and fishing fees. This approach was based on a recent survey revealing that less than half of the fishermen take out a fishing license and just slightly more than half of the hunters are licensed.

"We simply cannot continue to operate such a broad scale program for the benefits of everyone unless more folks share in the overhead," emphasized Commissioner J. W. Elliot of Mexico.

"These days, all our hunting and fishing resources have to be maintained by our state agency. The old wide open frontier days have given way to modern land utilization. And it takes big money to provide the outdoor facilities that Texas sportsmen expect."

The Commissioner stressed that the present hunting license fee of $2.15 has not been changed since it originally was fixed in 1919. "Everybody knows how values and prices have multiplied many times," he said. "Certainly the overhead for hunting and fishing projects has been affected like anything else."

The Commission cleared the way for possible designation of a part of sprawling Buffalo Lake in Randall County, for waterfowl hunting. The area, now a game refuge, is controlled by Federal agencies.

Rancher Jack Langston, living near Mt. Pleasant in Titus County, was authorized to reduce the surplus of bulls in his small elk herd. This action was possible since Titus County got Legislative permission for Commission control of its hunting and fishing.

The Commission exercised similar power to provide a special fifteen-day antlerless deer season for the Hayden Head Ranch in Bosque County, of the Possum Kingdom group, in an effort to harvest three hundred surplus whitetails. Wildlife biologists reported an acute overpopulation and also suggested taking seventy-five bucks during the regular thirty-day season from November 16 through December 15. The antlerless season will immediately follow the buck season, with each hunter permitted two deer. Hayden Head, of Corpus Christi, personally requested the special shoot.

The turkey season in Lavaca County of South Texas was closed by request of land owners to protect brood stock.

Some property owners affected by erosion of the original Roll-over Pass through Bolivar Peninsula, connecting the Gulf with East Galveston Bay, suggested a west side bulkhead similar to the east side installation. Joint studies already are being made to determine how to handle the problem. The Commission will work with the Highway Department and Galveston County to police the jam of fishermen at the Pass.

The Commission decided to broaden the facilities for circulating its official publication, TEXAS GAME AND FISH Magazine, by permitting groups such as Boy Scouts to share in fees and by creating other inducements. Legislative authority will be needed for some of the proposed subscription gimmicks.

Negotiations were authorized looking ahead toward possible acquisition of a Hidalgo County brush-tract for whitening down plus quail on the Gene Howe wildlife restoration area in the Panhandle was indicated and a delegation from Corpus Christi was assured that Federal authorities would be contacted about financing a survey and cost estimates on a proposed fish channel connecting the upper Laguna Madre with Corpus Christi Bay.

THE MIGHTY CHRYSLER FOR 1957

Here's the glamorous, low-priced 1957 Chrysler Windsor V-8

Announcing the most glamorous car in a generation!

You never looked or felt as good in anything before!

Other cars have changed models... this one changes motoring. Look at its rich, racy lines... at the long, low silhouette... at the dramatic upsweep of the rear fenders that plume back from the waist like the wake of a hydroplane. It's a streak of a car with the elegance of the boulevard and the spirit of the speedway.

Get into this car, drive it into traffic or out on the open highway and you enter a new domain of travel. In the 1957 Chrysler, with its new Torsion-Aire Ride, motion has a new "feel". And wait till you toe the throttle. A new Pushbutton TorqueFlite Transmission teams with a mighty airplane-type V-8 engine, developing up to 325 horsepower, to give you a new high-velocity getaway, matchless passing power when you need it.

Come in this week and visit our showrooms. See and drive the most completely new car of the year!

Torsion-Aire Ride
pours the road under you!

Try Chrysler's new Torsion-Aire Ride and you'll think some of the laws of gravity, motion and inertia have been suspended in your favor. No more rock and roll. No more pitch when you stop. Chrysler's new torque rod suspension and lower center of gravity give you a brand new ground-skimming "feel" of the road. The wheels ride the contours... but you don't. The road just pours under you.

Inspections Help Cut Accidents

Getting early automobile safety inspections may mean the difference between life and death, according to G. C. Morris, executive secretary of the Highway Safety Council.

During the first month of the current inspection period, which will run through April 15, only 4 per cent of the registered vehicles in Texas had been inspected.

"The importance of inspections has been proven by Department of Public Safety statistics," Morris said. "In 1951, before the inspection law went into effect, mechanical defects were a causative factor in 19 per cent of the fatal accidents in Texas. Last year, that figure had been reduced to 5 per cent."

"These figures show beyond a doubt that a person whose car is in good mechanical condition is much less likely to be involved in a fatal accident," Morris said. "A person who waits until the last minute to get his car inspected is taking a dangerous gamble with his own life."

Last year, 43 per cent of the vehicles inspected in Texas needed some adjustment or repair, and the average cost for such services was only eighty-eight cents, according to the Department of Public Safety.

Fertilizers Better; Improvement Is Seen

Fertilizers are a lot better than they used to be, but more improved fertilizer materials can be expected in the future, reports M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist.

Higher analysis fertilizers containing more nutrients and less bulky inert matter, and soluble or liquid fertilizers — all now on the market — have reduced weight and bulk and made both storage and application of fertilizer materials cheaper and easier for farmers and home gardeners.

Industrial and State-Federal research now being carried out will undoubtedly lead to further improvements, says Thornton.

One of these improvements will be the development of slower acting or less soluble forms of chemical fertilizer that will not leach out of the soil so rapidly. This will mean that enough fertilizer can be applied in one operation to meet the demands of a long, season crop, thus eliminating the need for repeated applications throughout the season. It will reduce present heavy losses of nitrogen through leaching. It will also prevent excessive potash consumption, now a problem in alfalfa and certain other crops in many parts of the country.

Other improvements will change the physical makeup of fertilizer materials, making them easier to store and to apply. A start in this direction has been made with the development of some granular products that have less tendency than older materials to cake and harden storage and that distribute more easily and uniformly in the field.

A lot more work needs to be done in developing these better fertilizers, says Thornton. But farmers would do well to be alert for new developments in this field because they will open opportunities for increased efficiency of production and greater farm profits.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Fastest "News Service" in Town!

Had a frantic wire from Washington yesterday—saying that the local Congressman was making a surprise visit and a short speech. Could I get the word around fast?

No time for a special edition of the Clarion, so I turned to the fastest "news service" in town... Windy Taylor. He spent an hour mobilizing his Lodge and Court House cronies—all pretty fair talkers—and the rest is history. Biggest turnout ever.

As a newspaperman, I hate to admit it—but facts are facts. The Windys of this world aren't only quicker news spreaders than our paper... they've even got better circulation.

From where I sit, some of us would rather talk than eat, while others are close-mouthed... just as some of us like coffee and others prefer a glass of beer. There's a lot to be said for both attitudes. But if you go in for gab—don't talk against someone just because you don't happen to agree with him on some question of personal choice. Use your own "good censorship."

ST. LOUIS TAKES LEAD

The St. Louis Comets proved their championship quality by scoring an upset victory over the Peacock Kadets of San Antonio last Saturday night 19-13. A 16-yard pass from Royce Groff to Justin Jungman, with 1 minute and 1 second left to go in the game, broke a 13-13 deadlock and moved the Comets back into first place in the South Texas Academic League.

The opening kickoff went into the end zone and play started on the 20. Lutz fumbled and the Kadets took possession on the 19. In 3 plays, they had the ball over the goal, with quarterback Adam scoring from the seven. Weyel's kick was good and the Kadets jumped to a 7-0 lead before the large homecoming crowd had settled in their seats.

After taking the second kickoff, the Comets sent Groff around right end for 12 yards but a couple of plays later, Groff fumbled. Returning the compliment, Peacock gave the ball back to the Comets in the same manner. But before they could move very far, Steve Haby took his turn at fumbling.

Finally, on their fourth try, the Comets got their machine rolling. Starting from their own 15, the Castroville team began to batter its way toward the goal. They were almost stalled at mid-field, but Steve Haby threw one of his rare passes complete to Jungman for the big first down. Groff shook loose on the 22 and swept down the sideline into the end zone. Espino's kick tied the score.

The Comets got their big break shortly after this. Stalled in their own territory, they had to kick. The high punt hit one of the Kadet safeties on the back of the leg and Lutz pounced on the ball on the enemy 28. After Bobby Tschirhart had moved the ball down close to the goal, Groff plunged over from the 3 to put the Comets ahead 13-7 just before the half ended.

The Kadets came surging back in the third quarter. Adam tossed a short pass to Weyel on the 32 and the speedy Kadet outran the defenders 68 yards to tie up the game. The try for point was blocked by Jungman and the score stood at 13-13. Throughout the remainder of the third quarter and most of the fourth, neither team could move very far. Henderson, a Kadet linebacker, began "reddogging" with telling effect, and the Comet line for their part would bend but not break.

Halfway through the last quarter, the Comets got rolling once again. In short gains they moved down close to the Peacock goal. But time was running out and so were the downs. Groff then passed to Justin Jungman in the end zone. Jungman made a somersault catch but hung on to the ball. The Comets haven't completed many passes this season, but they completed the big one that will give their second football trophy in two years.

The undefeated Hondo Owls walked over the game Cotulla Cowboys last Friday 45 to 6. This makes 19 in a row without a scoreboard defeat — seven for the '56 Owls. The Owls have 247 points for the season to their opponents' 52. The flock have yet to shut out one of their victims.

Mumps Strike Again
Before we talk of the Cotulla game, let's talk of the mumps situation. We were almost in the clear on any more outbreaks since the Bobby Ward case, when bang, the roof fell in last Saturday morning as Alvin Hartman became a one side mumps casualty. Sunday, the other side joined in. We should know by the Monday BEFORE the Pearsall game whether or not Alvin will be able to play against the Mavericks. Chances are he WILL be ready — the big question now is who will be next, or will this be the end of it?

We all know that Alvin Hartman is a most valuable piece of football merchandise. For the record, he has thrown 66 passes, 31 completions and in 54 carries has gained 363 for a 6.7 average. . . and his open field blocking is devastating! We mention all this just one reason — to emphasize for just one reason — to emphasize the point that each hale and hardy Owl will have to put out just a little more to take up the slack of Alvin's temporary absence, and if another Owl or two comes down with the mumps then they will have to put out just a little bit more. There is not a boy on the roster who cannot do at least 10 to 15 per cent better than his best effort to date. We never perfect ourselves to the point where we cannot do better, especially in a CRISIS, and this is certainly the time for each boy to go all out. It could prove something too . . . it could show each boy just how much of a football player he really is! A truly good football team is built on 11 men and some key reserves. If the loss of one or two men makes them fall flat, then the club is NOT all that it is cracked up to be. I sincerely believe the Owls will take up the slack with a strong desire to win, and then when Hartman rejoins the fold, the entire club will be better for the experience KNOWING they CAN play a BETTER and HARD-

ER brand of ball. We'll all be watching to find out!

Carrizo Next
The Owls play host to the Carrizo Springs Wildcats Friday night. Carrizo lost to Pearsall three weeks ago 49 to 13 in a game that a number of us saw. Last week Carrizo and Dilley fought to a 7-7 tie. By comparison, Cotulla holds a 13-12 win over Dilley. I thought Carrizo had a fine QB in No. 14 Jim Castella at 150 lbs. He passes very well and can run when his receivers are covered . . . and they have one tall boy, No. 23 Crozier Davison at 170 lbs., who is a fine pass receiver.

Cotulla Game Run-Down
The Owls had to kick off. They have three Captains but none can win a flip. Out of seven games they had only one coin toss win. Billy Neuman intercepted a pass on the second play of the game and the Owls were in business as they drove 39 yards for the initial score, with the game 3 minutes old. Highsmith ran for 12 and 1, Windrow for 4, Woolls 3 and 9 before Hartman went 10 yards for the score.

Cotulla tried to get a first down near mid-field with fourth and 2 but failed. Four plays later the Owls had their 13th point with only 7 minutes off the clock as Windrow dogged for 8, Highsmith shot for 8, Woolls pulled in a Hartman pass for 25 before Rambling Ray eased over for a 15 yard TD punt.

Cotulla scored next as they went into a spread formation that did NOT add any luster to the Owl victory. It was effective as QB Billy Jones engineered the attack. This drive was all Cotulla could muster for the night, but it was a good one that covered 72 yards on the ground for the score. The longer runs on this drive were for 10, 16 and 20 yards. The first quarter ended 14 to 6.

The Owls ran only seven plays, 5 rushing and 2 passes, in the second quarter, but it paid off for TDs! Cotulla got off 18 plays, 10 rushing and 8 passes.

The third Hondo score covered 55 yards in 3 plays. Butch Woolls got off a beauty of a 35 yard run as he wiggled his hips like a dancer. Hartman got 4 before he threw a quick "act-like-not-gonna-throw" pass to end Billy Neuman for a 16 yard TD play.

The fourth score came with 2 minutes before the half as Safetyman Billy Neuman returned a punt 15 yards. The next play was a picture . . . Woolls got behind two defenders and Alvin threw a beautiful pass to his outstretched fingers. Butch made a catch that Joe DiMaggio would have been proud of. The half ended 26 to 6.

Last Half Doings
The fifth TD came with only 1:23 run off the clock as Windrow returned the kick-off 15 yards to the Owl 39. Woolls got 13, Hartman 8 before Butch Woolls turned in another light and fancy-dan run . . . this time for a 40 yard TD scamper.

The Owls got two TDs in the fourth period. The first was set up as Big Jug Wiemers broke through to block a quick-kick and then recover it on the Cowboy 11. Billy Potsavich carried for 6, Windrow edged 1 before Billy got the call to go over from the 4.

The seventh and final tally came as Billy Neuman took a punt on the Cotulla 45, followed the wave of blue-walled blockers for as pretty a run and block session as you could care to see. As an ex-coach said, he has never seen a high school team execute the punt return to the perfection that a Cuck Carver team can, and we will certainly go along with that statement.

Johnny Windrow had unusual trouble with his extra points as he made good on only 3 of 7 attempts.

Hoots Lose To Dilley
The Hoots went to Dilley last Thursday and had a long ride home as they lost 13 to 6. This makes their district record stand at 2 wins and 3 losses. Dilley wins the Jr. Hi District Championship.

Dilley started out like they would run the Hoots out of town, took the ball after the kick-off and drove 75 yards before the Hoots held and took over on the 3. The next play Dilley recovered a fumble on the 2 and then scored.

The Hoots tied it up in the fourth quarter as they recovered a fumble on the Dilley 25. Charles Neuman went over for the score making it 6-6 tie. Then, with 2 minutes left, a 25 yard pass gave Dilley the winning score.

The Hoots were not at all sharp, but they were minus two regular backfield men, Mike Moore and Louis Schmitz, which hurt their offense greatly. The Hoots close their season at Carrizo Thursday, Nov. 1.

Tex Says He's No Expert But He Believes Ike Is

The other night a bunch of us were sitting around in the drug store after the football game, drinking coffee and talking. You know how it is after a game in a small town, especially after the home team loses. Nearly every man in the crowd had a theory as to why we didn't win the game. Most of them, of course, blamed the coach. I couldn't help remembering that before we consolidated the county schools we didn't even have enough boys to make up a football team. And these same football experts who were saying what Rockne or Bud Wilkinson would have done, up until a few years ago they didn't know a football from a watermelon.

But that's the way it is in a small town (and in big ones, too, I understand). I guess there's no real harm done, although sometimes it's pretty rough on the coach.

I guess we have a right, in this free country, to be self-appointed experts in any line we want to pick out. It seems to me that most people choose either football or politics.

Take this presidential election coming up next Tuesday: During the last few weeks I have heard so many stories and theories from so many different political experts that I nearly get confused sometimes. I have to stop and think that the fellow who is talking probably doesn't know any more about it than I do, and that helps me keep straightened out.

In fact, I guess I have had my mind made up all along. To make no bones about it, I like Ike. He's a man you can always look up to and respect—the kind of man you'd be proud to point out to any person, from any country on the face of the globe, and say: "That's our President!"

About Adlai, now, I'm not so sure. Of course, if he was elected, he would be my President, too, and I would hope he'd do a lot better than most people around here seem to think he would. This is something I don't think we need to worry about, because from all I can hear and read, Ike is going to win it again.

It seems to me that if Adlai ever had a chance around here, he threw it away when he came out with that H-bomb business. Now, the folks in our town don't know much about H-bombs, except that they don't want any personal dealings with them. Our scientific knowledge of H-bombs is about on a par with our football knowledge, I reckon. But we do know one thing: We don't want some misguided, inexperienced fellow fooling around with our national defense. When it comes to trusting what Bulgazian says or what Eisenhower says, I'll take Ike. So will the rest of the country, if I don't miss my guess.

Just before we broke up the other night Doc Brown came into the drug store, and somebody asked him: "Hey, Doc, how's Ike doin'?" (Doc's a big Eisenhower man.) Doc said: "Well, it's a busy campaign for the medical profession. Last week Ike went and got his heart examined; and I understand that this week Adlai is going to get his head examined."

Yours truly,
Tex
